

Mould's maze #5

It's almost holiday time, so this month's crossword is bigger than ever. Merry Christmas from Brisbane barrister John-Paul Mould!

NOW PURCHASING MEDICAL NEGLIGENCE FILES

Do you have medical negligence files going nowhere fast?

Are they a burden on your business?

We have a team of dedicated medical law experts who can help get these cases moving and bring a timely result to your clients, allowing you to concentrate on your core practice.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Contact: Wendy Nixon
Telephone: (07) 3006 6000
Email: medicallaw@shine.com.au

SHINE LAWYERS

Across

- 1 Writ of, leading to a bailiff auction. (9)
- 4 Opening and closing speech of counsel. (7)
- 7 Judge's court-controlling implement. (5)
- 10 Change a court document. (5)
- 12 Presuming children's good behaviour is valid consideration, an elf working in Australia would be governed by the And Associated Industries and Occupation Award 2010. (13)
- 16 Surrender of a fugitive to the jurisdiction of another state or country. (11)
- 18 Interlocutory. (7)
- 20 An enforcement order transferring wages or savings to a judgment creditor. (9)
- 22 HCA case involving the impact of intoxication on contractual capacity, v Ryan. (7)
- 23 Witness' oral evidence. (9)
- 25 Commence court proceedings. (3)
- 26 Jury that cannot make up its mind. (4)
- 29 Charge over a fund of changing assets of a company, that has not yet attached. (8)
- 31 Forum now incorporating the Anti-Discrimination Tribunal. (4)
- 32 Old jargon for an enforcement hearing (abbr.). (2)
- 33 Assurance by one contractual party that a particular statement of fact is true. (8)
- 34 Registered intellectual property in industrial items. (6)
- 36 Transfer of a deceased estate. (6)
- 37 Formal conference between police and accused (abbr.). (4)
- 38 Recipient of a Christmas present. (5)
- 40 Compromise. (6)
- 42 Adjourn. (6)
- 43 The Big House, quod or calaboose. (4)
- 44 Unjust, pertinent to restitution. (10)
- 45 Crown Prosecutor, ... Vasta. (3)
- 46 The year the new Queensland domestic violence legislation commenced operation. (4)

Down

- 2 '.. turpi causa', civil defence exhorting that the law ought not compensate people who have suffered loss in the course of their own wrongful actions. (2)
- 3 Police jargon for shoplifting (abbr.). (4)
- 5 The offence with which Santa would be charged for driving his sleigh after too many brandies (abbr.). (3)
- 6 A touchstone of admissibility of evidence. (11)
- 8 Federal tax levied on commodities. (6)
- 9 Capable of being sold. (9)
- 11 Formerly known as, especially a maiden name. (3)
- 12 Share, part or portion; typically half. (6)
- 13 Offence involving flying through airspace on a sleigh uninvited. (8)
- 14 Judicial officer exonerated by the HCA under the Magistrates Court Act (Qld). (9)
- 15 Written questions filed under oath. (15)
- 17 HCA case recognising the constitutional implied right of freedom of speech in political matters, v Herald and Weekly Times Ltd. (11)
- 19 Federal Court judge who retired in 2010. (7)
- 21 Male legatee. (4)
- 24 Ownership of land. (5)
- 27 HCA case involving the exercise of discretion regarding admissibility of evidence when police have broken the law apprehending an accused, v Cross. (7)
- 28 Order requiring an unsuccessful defendant to pay the successful defendant's legal costs. (9)
- 29 Involuntary relinquishment of money or property without compensation as a consequence of civil breach or commission of crime. (10)
- 30 Statutory reforms now requiring leave to cross-examine in committal hearings. (8)
- 33 Formal pre-emptive release from liability. (6)
- 34 Coercion unlawfully applied. (6)
- 35 Cause of action the Grinch would bring against Santa for a chimney drop. (8)
- 39 Licit. (5)
- 41 Civil wrong. (4)

Practice Improvement for Law Firms

Sixteen years experience giving jargon-free help across partnership and practice issues

Visit our website for detailed services and what our clients say about us.

dr peter lynch, principal

Offices at Brisbane and Sunshine Coast

direction ♦ coaching ♦ improvement for professional firms

m. 0408 722 396
e. p.lynch@dciyncon.com.au
w. www.dciyncon.com.au