

Mould's maze

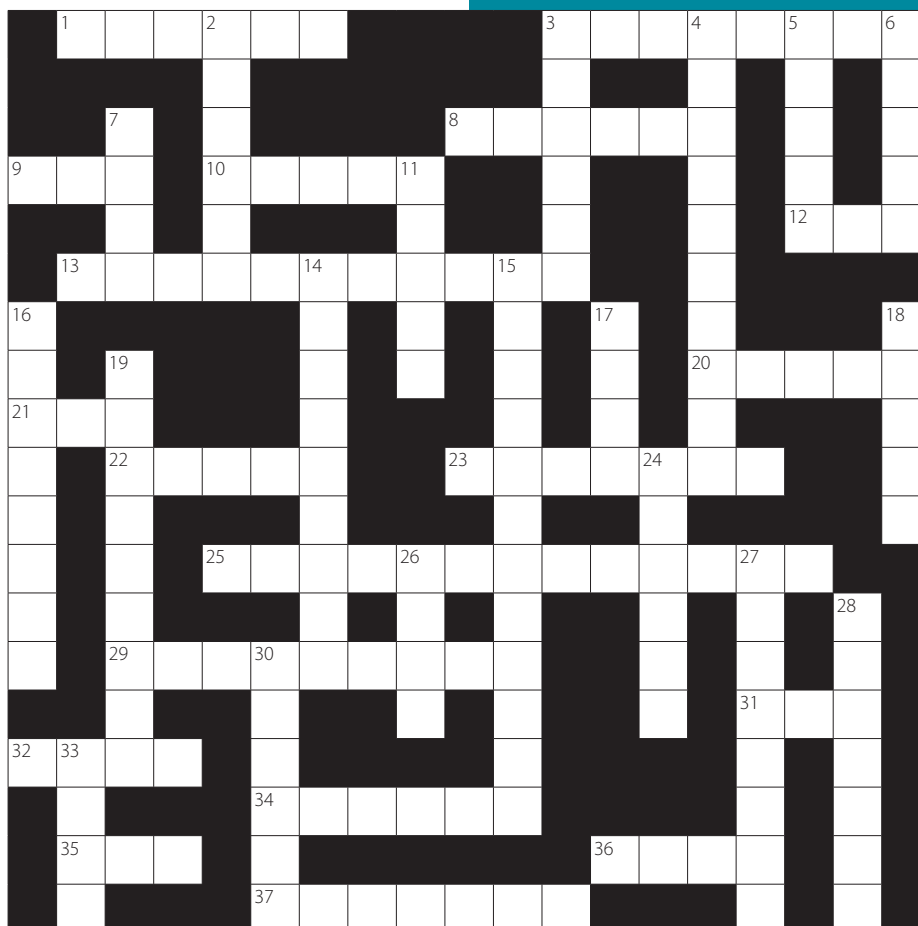

with Sunshine Coast barrister John-Paul Mould.

Across

- 1 Contractual clause containing an expiry date. (6)
- 3 Dame Roma was the first woman to appear before the High Court, to be made QC, to be made an Australian judge and to be made a state governor. (8)
- 8 2014 High Court of Australia case refusing the legal implication of a duty of trust and confidence into employment contracts generally, Commonwealth Bank of Australia v (6)
- 9 To that extent, ... tanto. (Lat.) (3)
- 10 Family Court decision about binding financial agreements whose strict statutory interpretation heralded the enactment of Section 90G(1A) of the Family Law Act, v..... (5)
- 12 An outline of argument to the Queensland Court of Appeal must not exceed this amount of pages. (3)
- 13 An expert called by only one party, an witness. (11)
- 20 Christian name of solicitors Grainger, Munt, Hales, Chan, Collins and White. (5)
- 21 Same as 12 Across. (3)
- 22 The plaque on the Commonwealth Law Courts in Brisbane states that this Lord, famous for his judgment in Donoghue v Stephenson, was born in Brisbane and lived in Tank Street. (5)
- 23 This principle expresses the approach taken by the courts to the interpretation of statutory privative provisions. (7)
- 25 Speaking for an inordinate amount of time, particularly in parliament. (13)
- 29 Local government rule. (9)
- 31 The smallest recorded will, the drafting of which was litigated in Thorn v Dickens [2006] WN 54, read simply "... for Mother". (3)
- 32 A clean slate, used to describe an accused with no criminal history, tabula..... (Lat.) (4)
- 34 Bring forward in argument or as evidence. (6)
- 35 Per diem means for each (3)
- 36 The 1966 album I Fought the Law was released by The Bobby Fuller (4)
- 37 High Court case concerning provocation. (7)

Down

- 2 It appears. (Lat.) (6)
- 3 Medieval system involving an accused swallowing, in one piece, either bread or cheese weighing one ounce, their innocence proven if done without effort, trial by (6)
- 4 A list of things to be corrected. (Lat.) (10)
- 5 The youngest (at 36) High Court of Australia justice ever appointed. (5)
- 6 Goods or wreckage lying on the seabed. (5)
- 7 Fox v..... established the principle that a plaintiff could recover the additional income tax paid in respect of refundable workers' compensation receipts. (4)
- 11 Former High Court of Australia justice who had the most Facebook fans. (5)
- 14 Surname of Judge Judy. (9)

- 15 Consent inferred by silence. (12)
- 16 To restore to its original condition (for example, pre-contract), restitutio in..... (Lat.) (8)
- 17 The least desirable seat in a criminal court. (4)
- 18 Selected for an office, but not officially appointed. (5)
- 19 A jury's verdict must be to secure a conviction. (9)
- 24 His law simply states 'if anything can go wrong, it will'. (6)
- 26 The longest hearing in the High Court (39 days) occurred in the Nationalisation Case. (4)
- 27 Unenforceable. (8)
- 28 When a child is competent, the Family Court will not make orders in respect to the child's parenting. (7)
- 30 The Chief Justice of the High Court who served the shortest period in office (9 months), when he resigned to become Governor-General. (6)
- 33 Hallmark English trusts law case concerning a solicitor's liability for knowing receipt, Barnes v..... (4)

Solution on page 64