

Mould's maze

with Sunshine Coast barrister John-Paul Mould.

Across

- 1 Obtaining payment or property through coercion. (9)
- 3 Compurgation, wager of law or del ley was a form of trial in which the defendant was required to produce character witnesses who would swear to the defendant's innocence (Arch.). (5)
- 7 An argument that attacks a proposition by pointing out a ridiculous conclusion to be reached, ad absurdum (Lat.). (8)
- 9 The doctrine of election is contrasted with the doctrine of estoppel by because the latter focuses on the person relying on the estoppel whereas election looks at the person who is said to have waived. (7)
- 10 A financial intermediary that purchases receivables from a company for the value of the invoice less a discount for commission and fees. (6)
- 11 The companionship, love, affection and intimacy enjoyed by spouses, the loss of which caused by a third party can give rise to a tortious claim; a joint venture. (10)
- 13 A perjurer's evidence is (10)
- 15 A non-possessory right to take natural resources from the land of another, profit (Fr.). (8)
- 17 A one-ounce piece of bread or cheese of which an accused required to swallow it was found guilty if they choked (Arch.). (7)
- 19 Precedent legal document containing standard common clauses. (11)
- 21 The progeny of animals ferae naturae. (6)
- 23 Evidence not contained in the body of an agreement which cannot generally be admitted to contradict, explain or vary the contract. (9)
- 24 To judicially remove the precedential value of a previous decision. (8)
- 25 The substitution of a higher for a lower grade of punishment. (11)
- 26 Preside. (3)
- 27 A special day appointed by the court for the purpose of hearing legal argument. (9)
- 29 A commission granted by a government to a private person to seize the property of a foreign government or its subjects, and reprisal. (6)
- 30 Ex D is a citation for reports from the Division. (9)

Down

- 2 Advowsons, tithes, commons, ways, offices, dignities, franchises, corodies, annuities and rents were, according to Sir William Blackstone, the 10 classes of hereditaments. (11)
- 4 Hunter S. Thompson's Dr once said, "As your attorney I advise you to drive at top speed. It'll be a god damn miracle if we can get there before you turn into a wild animal". (5)
- 5 Animals that have trespassed on another's land for at least a night are said to have been levant et (Fr.). (8)
- 6 Conveyancer; legal scribe. (9)
- 8 Internal tax on commodities which Australian state governments have no jurisdiction to levy. (6)
- 9 The ability of property to be removed, without which theft cannot be established. (13)
- 12 This defence is not available if publication of a defamatory matter was actuated by malice, privilege. (9)
- 14 Common bail condition for young offenders. (6)
- 16 The practice of appointing family members to important positions regardless of merit. (8)
- 18 A person to whom the facts and evidence lead one to believe that person has committed a crime. (7)
- 20 A clause following "whereas" in a deed or contract explaining the purpose of the document. (7)
- 22 Hide a fugitive for the purpose of avoiding capture. (7)
- 25 A liberty granted to a subject of keeping buck, doe, fox, marten, roe and beasts of the forest or venary (Arch.). (5)
- 26 Fictional television series featuring a criminal lawyer who creates himself a new name to better attract clients, Better Call (4)
- 28 Formerly known as (Fr.). (3)

Solution on page 64

back to contents