

Mould's maze

with Sunshine Coast barrister John-Paul Mould.

Across

- 1 An eyewitness, as opposed to an expert witness or character witness, is otherwise called a witness. (10)
- 3 Military. (7)
- 6 The loss of trademark protection when a brand becomes a generic word used to describe a product or service, for example Hoover. (10)
- 8 Leniency or mercy towards an offender. (8)
- 9 The existence of multiple legal systems within one population, legal (9)
- 11 Spousal maintenance between unmarried couples. (8)
- 14 A previous suspension will not automatically prohibit a court from granting a special hardship order. (Abbr.) (4)
- 17 Courts will apply the totality principle and concurrent sentences to avoid a sentence becoming (8)
- 18 Liable or guilty. (8)
- 19 Ownership and possession of freehold land. (Arch.) (6)
- 21 The price a person guilty of an offence was required to pay instead of receiving another punishment. (Arch.) (7)
- 23 The Senate's refusal to sign a Bill passed by the Lower House of Parliament. (4)
- 25 Money collected under a tariff. (6)
- 26 The open space situated within a common enclosure belonging to a house. (9)
- 28 Judicial decision. (6)
- 29 To seize personal property by criminal or civil order. (7)
- 30 A lien or right requires no further action to be enforceable. (6)

Down

- 2 The proferentem rule requires a court to interpret a contract against its drafter. (6)
- 4 Offences that are inherently wrong are mala ... as opposed to offences which are wrong only because they are prohibited. (Lat.) (2,2)
- 5 Theft. (7)
- 7 The principle discussed by the High Court of Australia in R H McL v The Queen that a sentence imposed in a trial maximises the sentence to which an appellant is exposed in consequence of having successfully appealed against an original conviction. (7)
- 9 Judicially sit. (7)

- 10 A clause enables a court to more easily apply a blue pen through invalid clauses without affecting the validity of the entire contract. (12)
- 11 The principle that a similar offence should be punished similarly. (6)
- 12 The perpetual, inalienable ownership of real estate. (8)
- 13 Antonym of contingent. (6)
- 15 Judicially step down from a particular case. (6)
- 16 Consideration paid for standing a ship in port. (9)
- 20 All things otherwise being equal, paribus. (Lat.) (7)
- 22 Robbery with violence. (6)
- 23 Remove a matter from a court list. (6)
- 24 Right of a third party, jus (Lat.) (6)
- 27 To share a common border with. (4)

Solution on page 64